

EOSC 211 – Week 6 – Pre-class Mini Quiz

Name:
Student #:

1. Your reading covered two ways in which you can control the flow of your program. Which of the following is not a control structure for controlling the flow of your program?

ANSWER

- a. A indexing statement
- b. A selection statement
- c. A repetition statement

2. Which of the following uses an incorrect combination of keywords?

ANSWER

- a. if – else – end
- b. if – continue – end
- c. if – elseif – end
- d. if – end
- e. switch – case – end

3. The `end` statement is NOT required

ANSWER

- a. at the end of a loop
- b. at the end of a selection block
- c. at the end of the program

4. Your text talks about two types of loops. Which of the following is not one of those types of loops.

ANSWER

- a. for loop
- b. while loop
- c. conditional loop

5. Choose the correct answer. When writing a loop, it is common practice to

ANSWER

- a. indent different levels of the loop
- b. add a break statement
- c. add an exit statement
- d. make your code as dense as possible